HOMERO ALVAREZ SEP7ETT

Hard-swinging, high-energy jazz rooted in Latin American rhythms and strong melodic identity.

Bio

Homero Alvarez Sep7ett is a dynamic instrumental ensemble blending contemporary jazz with strong influences from Latin American musical traditions, drawing from countries such as Brazil, Uruguay, Colombia, Mexico, and Cuba.

The music is primarily original, while occasionally drawing on themes from Homero Alvarez's work in theatre, film, and television. The compositions balance structure and openness, leaving ample space for individual expression and improvisation within a tight and responsive ensemble sound.

The group brings together some of Sweden's most established jazz musicians, resulting in a strong collective voice defined by rhythmic clarity, interplay, and musical presence.

Current Release

Following the debut album GROWING (2022), the band now released FLOWING (December, 2025) on Stockholm Jazz Records.

FLOWING is released exclusively on vinyl, featuring tracks available only in that format. On digital platforms, the band released a three-track EP titled Get Flowing.

Live

Homero Alvarez Sep7ett delivers energetic live performances with a strong sense of groove, dynamic interplay, and expressive range. The music moves between tightly arranged sections and open improvisation, creating concerts marked by both precision and spontaneity.

The band has performed at jazz clubs and festivals across Sweden, building a reputation as a compelling and engaging live act.
